Defense of the Bay Event to be Held at Angel Island State Park October 23 and 24

TIBURON - Angel Island State Park will host Defense of the Bay, a living history event, on Saturday and Sunday, October 23 and 24, from 11:00 A.M. to 3:00 P.M. at Camp Reynolds. The event covers Angel Island and its role in the Philippine-American War of 1899-1902. It will feature historic re-enactors interpreting the lives of soldiers and civilians of the time. Event historians will be on hand to discuss details of the war, exhibit equipment and weapons, and demonstrate original hand-crank sewing machines and other home crafts of the era. Camp Reynolds, a historic US Army outpost on the northwest side of Angel Island, housed troops being deployed to the Philippines for this war. A map of the island is available upon arrival at Ayala Cove and can also be downloaded at www.parks.ca.gov/angelisland/. For more information, contact the park office at (415) 435-1915 or (415) 435-5390.
